

A SPECTACULAR BLAZE--aroused Frankfort residents around 1:30 Monday morning but fortunately there was no wind and the fire was confined to what had been a summer kitchen and now used for storage at the rear of the Baumann tavern, one of the landmarks of the village that is located at Kansas and Ash sts., Frankfort. The Frankfort Hardware Co. had some goods stored there. Fire Chief Fred Kohlhausen estimated the damage at about $500. Origin of the blaze was not determined. Firemen were called out Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock when an oil furnace in the S. & S. Sink Top Co. plant at 108 Kansas st., backfired and burned out the controls. Charles Bobzin, custodian, came to the plant Sunday afternoon for a routine check and found the building filled with smoke. Damage was reported to have been negligible. (Robert Porter Photo)

Man Hospitalized After Shooting In Roadside Bar

One man is in the hospital and another is at liberty under bond of $10,000 as a result of a shooting last Saturday night in the 6 & 7 bar at 159th and Wolf rd.

The victim is Robert Caldwell, 45, an insurance salesman who resides at 5618 Kimball, Chicago. He is in Little Company of Mary hospital, with a wound in the left chest.

Charged with the shooting is Bill W. Willsey, 34, a civil engineer of 237 S. Water st., Batavia, Ill. He was taken to Oak Lawn by State Troopers Thomas Begeske and Richard Johnson of Dist. 4, and formerly charged with assault with intent to kill.

According to investigators Caldwell and Willsey had not met previously and had not engaged in any argument. Both were seated at the bar. It was about 10 o'clock.

Witnesses later told state troopers that Willsey who had been drinking, became loud and apparently took a sudden dislike to his neighbor at the bar--Caldwell. Finally Willsey drew a .32 pistol from a pocket and began waving it around.

At that juncture the bartender left to call the proprietor, Robert Uhte, by telephone and was not on hand when the actual shooting took place.

According to the position and nature of the wound Caldwell is believed to have swung around on his stool to face Willsey and as he turned Willsey fired a shot. The bullet struck Caldwell in the left side, just below the arm pit and finally halted against the breast bone. It missed the heart and apparently did no damage to the lung. The bullet has been recovered.

Willsey was to have appeared in court at Oak Lawn yesterday before Judge Hunt and indications are that the case would be continued.

Lillie L. Cooper, Area Resident 50 Years, Dies

Mrs. Lillie L. Cooper, 74, a resident of rural Mokena for 50 years died Sunday morning in Silver Cross hospital, Joliet. She had been in ill health for several years. She had spent two days with her son Harry in New Lenox and went to her sister Isabel, Mrs. Henry Tilsy in Orland Twp. Friday to spend the day, where she was taken with a sudden severe heart attack, and from there to the hospital.

Born April 22, 1885 in the Isle Of Man, she came to this country in 1891 with her mother Mrs. Ellen Creer and five other sisters and brothers. Their father, John, came to this country a few years previous who sent for his family. Upon their arrival they settled in Chicago and 10 years later they purchased and moved onto the farm on 167th st., near route 45.

In 1905, Lillie L. Creer was united in marriage with Walter Cooper. They set up housekeeping on a farm on 179th st., and a few years later bought and moved to the farm on 189th and Wolf road, Mokena. Several years after her husband's death in 1935, Mrs. Cooper sold the farm and moved to the village of Mokena.

Surviving is a daughter Helen, Mrs. George Bassett, Ontario, Wis., a son Harry, New Lenox; five grand children, three great grandchildren and her sister, Mrs. Tilsy, Orland Park. Another son died in infancy.

Removal was made to the Baskevill chapel, route 30, New Lenox, where services were held Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. Glenn Dunbar, pastor of the Methodist church in Manhattan, officiating. Burial was in the Orland Park Memorial cemetery.

Caucus Group Prepares For Sandburg HS Board Election

The executive committee of the Carl Sandburg high school caucus has begun preparations for the school board election of next April. The caucus has for its purpose the selection, endorsement, and support of qualified candidates for membership on the board of education.

Letters have been mailed, to presidents of last year's member organizations, asking the cooperation of these organizations in appointing delegates. The organizational meeting of the caucus, which these chosen delegates will attend, will be held at Carl Sandburg High School on Monday evening, Jan. 11.

Any organization having 20 or more members and having as its primary purpose the general community welfare activities is eligible to appoint 2 delegates and 1 alternate. Non-organization delegates may be accredited by submitting petitions signed by 20 residents qualified as voters of School District 230.

New organizations will be welcomed. Any president who failed to receive a letter, or any individual who desires to be a non-organization delegate should contact Ralph Haag, 8315 119th Street, Palos Park, Gibson 8-3744.

Each delegate is required to pay a fee of $2.50. This money is used to defray organization and election-campaign expenses.

New Lenox School Bond Election Set For Dec. 12

Faced with the fact that its enrollment will be greater than its plant facilities the New Lenox grade school board has called a bond election for Dec. 12 to finance the cost of an addition to Oakview school. The issue is for $225,000 and the interest rate is not to exceed 4 3/4%, and will be retired over a period of 20 years.

There are to be two polling places, No. 1 located in the Haven school, S. Cedar road and Haven ave., in the village of New Lenox. It will serve all voters in the New Lenox school district (No. 122) lying outside of the Joliet Township high school district.

No. 2 will be located at the Andrew Souter residence, Golf road and will serve all voters in Dist. 122 who reside within the confines of the Joliet Township high school district. Polls will be open from 12 noon to 7 p.m.

The proposed addition will provide for five additional classroom and a gymnasium auditorium.

The present enrollment in the New Lenox system, according to Supt. John Oster, is 710 which is 40 more than was the enrollment at the close of school last May.

The number of pupils in grades one thru four is such that each uses three classrooms, Supt. Oster said, and grades five thru eight each use two. He added that two of the seventh grade rooms and one of the fifth grade rooms each have more than 40 pupils. The recommended number is 30 per room.

Kindergarten is conducted in one room with three classes using it--one after the other.

The present foyer would be used for the entrance to the auditorium-gymnasium. It was built originally with that purpose in mind just as Oakview school was designed so it could be expanded without great difficulty.

Orland Park Board Studies Bond Measure

An ordinance authorizing bond issues to meet the cost of installing sewers at Orland Park and improving the water system there was subjected to serious study by the village board of trustees Monday night at a recessed session.

There is a possibility that the measure may be voted on at the meeting next Monday night although the trustees may want a further discussion of the subject.

The estimated amount of bonds to be voted upon is $550,000, according to the ordinance.

This does not mean that the program will cost that much, it was said by Mayor W.R. Schussler, Jr., explained that it was necessary to have an amount that would be sure to cover all contingencies. The trustees, of course, will endeavor to get the job done for as much less as possible, it was emphasized.

Because of the growth of Orland Park more water will be needed and the program now under consideration by the board will provide this, it was said.

The community is spared one expense that Mokena and Frankfort had to include in its sewer plans, namely a sewage treatment plant. The Chicago sanitary district is building such a plant at Orland Park that will take care of a population of 8,000.

George Gibson Dies Suddenly

Funeral services for Mr. George D. Gibson, 78, of Mokena, were held at 1 p.m. Thursday Nov. 12, in the Egan Funeral Home, 63rd and Lawn ave., Chicago. Interment was in Mt. Hope cemetery.

Mr. Gibson died suddenly in his home at 144 Hiwatha blvd., Monday evening, Nov. 9.

Born in Winthrop, Mo., on Jan. 20, 1881, he was a retired railroad worker from the Pennsylvania Railroad and moved to Mokena from Chicago three years ago.

Surviving are his widow, Sarah Ann, ten children, 19 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. One son, William A., died in the Korean War on April 24, 1951. The children who live in Mokena, are Mrs. Anthony Dina, Mrs. Robert Frantz, Mrs. Donald McCauley, George D. Gibson Jr., and Lemuel. Other children are, Mrs. Ray Dorfman, Burbank, Calif., Burt Andrew, stationed in New Jersey with the Navy; Mrs. Frank Liebenauer, Berwyn; Mrs. George Stel Imach, and Mrs. Henry Schumann, both of Chicago.

Sandburg Board Joins In Pilot Manual Study

The Carl Sandburg high school board of education has begun drafting a policy manual in cooperation with a pilot study on the subject by the National School Board Association and the National Education Association.

This project, it was said, is undertaken with a view of determining effective means and procedures in formulating school board policies for all school districts in the United States. The program is directed by Mrs. Helen Radtke, a member of the school board at Point Angelus, Wash.

The Sandburg board decided to devote a portion of each meeting to drafting its policy manual. The pilot study is scheduled to be completed by late next spring.

New Lenox Hires Engineers To Draft Water and Sewer Plans

Steps toward setting up a sewer and water system for New Lenox have been taken by the Village board there and the trustees hope that by next April they will be able to take bids on the proposed improvements.

At a special meeting of the Village board the Village entered into a contract with the engineering firm of Baxter and Woodman, of Crystal Lake, to draft plans and specifications for such a project.

Preliminary estimates indicate that to provide softened water, of a sufficient supply to meet domestic and commercial needs, plus adequate fire protection and a sanitary sewer system, including a sewage treatment plant, will cost approximately $900,000.

These proposed improvements would be confined to the corporate boundaries of the village, it was stated. More definite figures will be forthcoming, it was announced, when the plans are completed and the people of the community will then have an opportunity to decide whether to proceed with the program.

Baxter and Woodman prepared a survey and tentative plans for a water and sewer system for New Lenox a couple of years ago at a cost of approximately $11,000 which was paid by a federal grant that is to be repaid if the village goes ahead with the project. This report covered a larger territory, one that extended beyond the village limits and the estimate for water and sewer and sewage treatment ran to approximately $2-million.

At that time it was estimated that payments from householders necessary to pay off the bonds would run $16 to $18 a month and the program was abandoned because of the cost.

Sandburg Students To Stage Delightful Play

"You Can't Take It With You", a delightful story of an uninhibited family which has found the secret of living, is to be presented Friday and Saturday evenings (Nov. 20-21) at 8 o'clock in Carl Sandburg high school, 133rd and La Grange Road.

When the socially prominent Kirbys come against the eccentric trimming the scope of the improvements they can be financed without hardship.

Residents in certain portions of the village have been battling drain age problems for several years and engineers say the only permanent solution will be the installation of sewers. Raw sewage in ditches along streets and roads in certain sections of the community is not uncommon, according to the many complaints voiced to the board.

Sycamore family and friends through the romance of handsome Tony Kirby and the lovely Alice Sycamore, the social barriers are shaken from their moorings. The snakes, fire-works, erector sets, and psychological ward game all blend to bring peace out of mayhem.

The cast includes: Egle Tumasonis, Connie Cummings, Russ LaMantia, Darryl Schmitt, Russ Badger, Jim Thompson, Georgia Lundin, Sandi Smith, Ed Barkoski, Ted Brom, Rebecca Hill, Judy Kerrins, Richard Singer, Dale Schmitt, Jon Valfre, Diane Gawne, John Dunz, Steve Rogers, Melvin Yunker and Ken Bailey.

Tickets will be available from the cast and Dramatics club members, and can be purchased at the door on the night of performance.

Director, Miss Stephens, commented, "If the play is half as riotous as the rehearsals have been, it will be a great success."

Sign Contracts For Sewer Job At Frankfort

Formal signing of contracts for the laying of sewer mains and the erection of a sewage treatment plant at Frankfort took place at the regular meeting of the village board Monday night.

The D'Andrea Construction Co. of Joliet is to install the sewers and Walton and Gaskill, of Crete, is to build the treatment plant. The sewer contract is for $218,580 and the treatment plant contract is for $167,290.

The contractors will be ready to begin work on the projects--weather permitting--as soon as their performance bonds have been received and approved by the trustees. It probably will be a week or 10 days before the bonds are ready it was said.

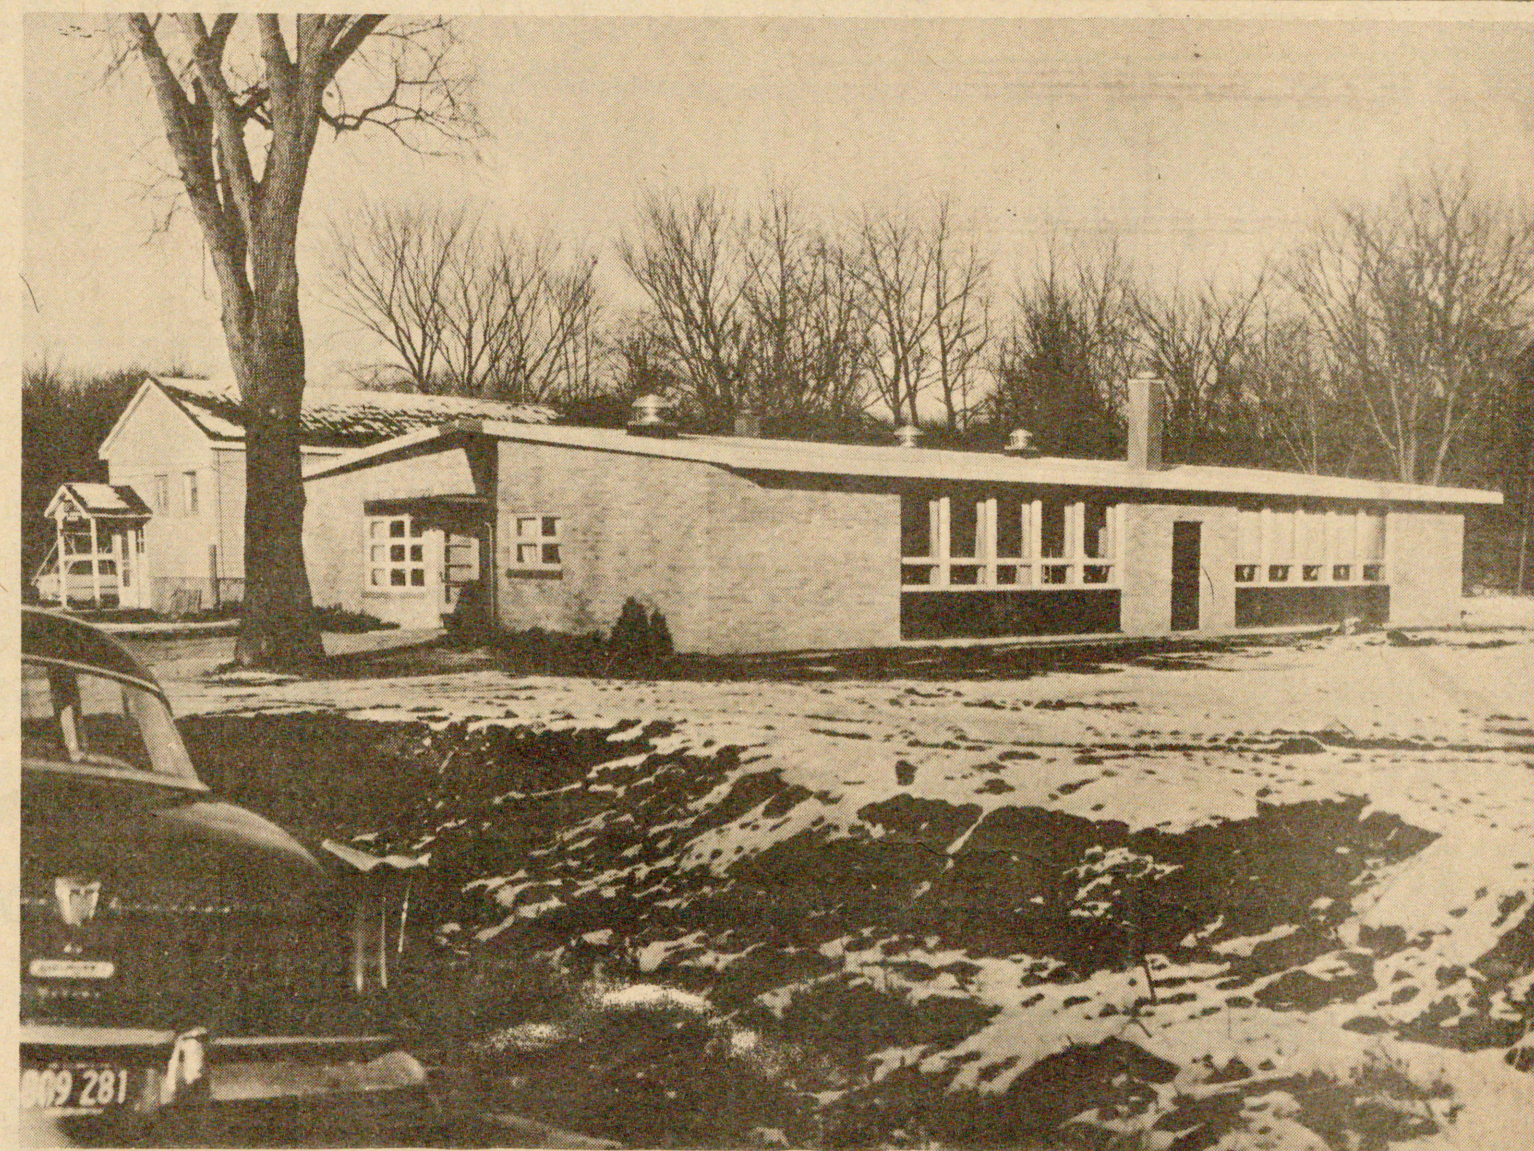

The board is to meet again next Monday night to discuss business temporarily sidetracked by business connected with the sewer project.

Will Discuss Erection Of Area Hospital

In order to discuss the establishment of a hospital to serve the area, the executive board of the Tinley Park Chamber of Commerce is inviting officials of neighboring communities to a meeting planned for next week.

Also at the meeting will be members of a non-profit group which is actively engaged in such enterprises and has helped to establish hospitals in other communities.

The area to be served by the proposed hospital would extend from Tinley Park, Orland Park, Mokena, New Lenox, and Frankfort.

DEDICATE TRINITY SCHOOL--This new building, located at Gougar and Francis roads in New Lenox township, serves the mentally retarded children of the area, including some from Mokena and New Lenox. The wooden building seen at the left--the former Gougar school--was made available for the program and given the new name of Trinity. It was an ancient building, however, and was becoming too small to accommodate the enrollment. Last year the Joliet Exchange club launched a campaign that resulted in the building of a modern, four-room school. The building has been in use since the beginning of the current school year but the formal dedication did not take place until Sunday afternoon. Three clergymen representing the Protestants, Roman Catholics and Jews took part in the program. (Marvin Smith Photo)

Park Benefits From Annual Mokena Picnic

A total of $654.12 was realized from the annual Homecoming picnic held in Mokena in September. The picnic chairman, Larry Is-tel, who made this report at the last meeting of the Mokena Lions club, reported that this amount was divided 50-50 with the park. There were 12 organizations who participated in the event.

The board of the Lions club authorized payment of $150 to the Trinity school as its share of the recent pancake day, sponsored by the Lions. Also agreed upon by the board was the purchase of additional equipment for the children's playground from this year's fruit cake sales.

New members welcomed into the club were Harold Behen, Joseph Cook, William Donaldson, Ed Haislet, Ralph Hitz, James Quinn and Al Viscounty. The semi-annual membership meeting of Lions of Lincoln-Way, Inc., was held Nov. 11 at the New Lenox Methodist church. This group is composed of Lions clubs of Frankfort, Manhattan, Mokena and New Lenox.

The lists and many useful articles will be displayed and may be purchased during the evening hours Thursday and Friday Dec. 10 and 11, of the fair and on Saturday Dec. 12. There will be a "Swap Table" where children may exchange a toy for a book. The toys will be donated to the state hospital for the children's ward. This will be worked on a strictly "First come, First served" basis. The time and dates of all events will be published in this newspaper a week before the fair.

Members of the library board request that books be checked for overdue dates and returned so others may have an opportunity to read them. Among recently purchased juvenile fiction and non-fiction books are the following titles: First Under the North Pole, Brave Cowboy, Captain Ghost, Story of the Naval Academy, Two To Make Ready, Valentine Cat, Doll of Lilac Valley, Ride the White Tiger, Better Baseball for Boys, Discovering Chemistry, Story of the Paratroops Tree House Island, Petunia, Animals that Keep Us, Secret of Ron Mor Skerry, Red Eagle, Sammy the Seal, Witches, Witches, Witches!, Career of Mr. Billy Barker, Fisherman's Son, Thing at the Foot of the Bed, She Lives on Killmarigaro, Book of Small Animals, St. Francis and The Animals, Tall Tales of America, Mary Jane, A Fish is Not a Pet, Business Boy in Holland, Story of the Samurai Sword, and Wise Alcott of Concord.

It is hoped to continue adding new books to the library shelves and all can help by supporting The Book Fair Dec. 10, 11, and 12.

Red Cross Will Make Record Of Your Voice For Servicemen

Next to being home for Christmas, most servicemen would rate a message from their loved ones as the best gift of all.

Recognizing this, the Home Service department of Chicago Red Cross - through its Voices from Home program - is making it possible for a serviceman actually to hear voices of his entire family on Christmas with no charge to either party. This is done by making a record of the families' voices and mailing it to the serviceman.

Mrs. V. S. Miller, 17539 - 65th Avenue, volunteer Red Cross public information representative for Tinley Park, announced that people in this area who have relatives or friends serving in the armed forces who can't get home for Christmas may now make appointments to have their voices recorded.

Peoples may make appointments for recordings either at chapter headquarters, 529 S. Wabash, WA 2-7950, beginning this week or at the Red Cross office in their area.

A recording machine will be in Harvey, at 157 E. 155th st., ED 1-1075 from Nov. 23 to 27. Making appointments is suggested to save time. Cross volunteers will operate the recording machines, the records and mailing containers will be provided free of charge by the Chicago Red Cross.

Among the services assigned to the Red Cross by Congressional charter is emergency communication assistance to servicemen and their families. As an extension of this emergency service, Red Cross initiated its Voices from Home program five years ago to bring cheer to those servicemen separated from their loved ones during the holidays.

"No matter if a family sings, recites or just talks," Mrs. Miller, says, "I'm sure their serviceman will tell them that the Red Cross Voices from Home record was the best gift

PTA NEWS

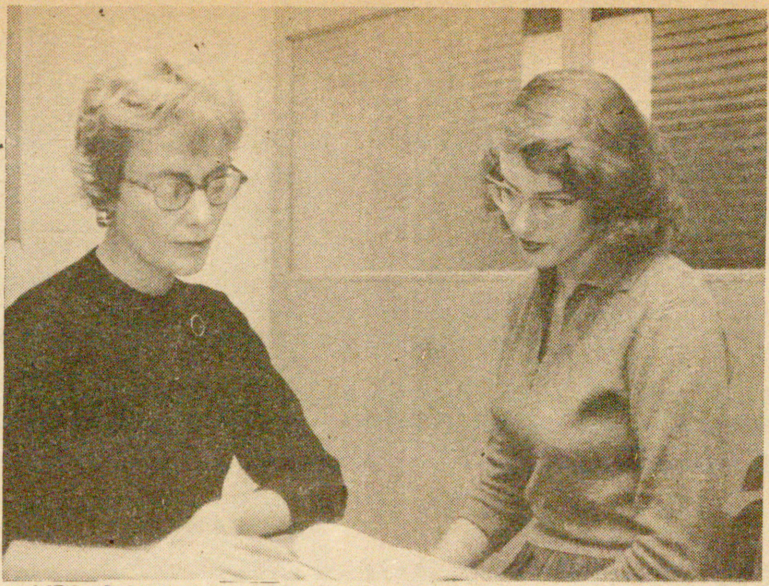

ANN RUTLEDGE UNIT
When the Ann Rutledge Parent-Teacher Association met Nov. 9, they enjoyed a special treat. After the short business meeting, the guest speaker Tom Olson, was introduced by Mrs. Dwight Hicks, program chairman. His topic was "A Stutterer Talks About Stuttering," an enlightening and entertaining talk of interest to all, especially parents.

For the benefit of those who have not had the privilege of hearing him on this subject, here are a few highlights of his talk.

Although there are 150 reasons for stuttering, the main reason seems to be the fear of stuttering itself. Children during the ages of four years to third grade, he said, normally repeat 44 out of 100 words. It is at this time that many well meaning parents are tempted to tell the child, "Don't stutter," thereby drawing his attention to the fact that he is repeating himself. In his effort to stop a perfectly normal procedure, the child tries so hard not to stutter that he unconsciously acquires the habit. It is most important not to label a child a stutterer. If at the age of 10 or 12, the parent notices that a certain tension causes an inability to utter a certain word, this would be an indication that the child needs professional help. Ninety per cent of stutterers have been labeled "Stutterers" by unqualified persons.

Many schools advertise quick courses in national publications and newspapers. Although these cures may be effective at the time it is of short duration in most cases. Olsen mentioned that an accredited institution is necessary for any permanent help. The Universities of Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin were mentioned as having excellent speech clinics; 6 to 8 weeks being the normal amount of time for a person to experience effective help.

Stuttering is not inherited, but through the fear of stuttering, may run in the family. The speakers unit and charm made him a fine entertainer as well as instructor.

MRS. JANE SULLIVAN, English instructor, and VIVIAN JACOBS, Patterns president.

English Courses At L-W Put Stress On Writing

Two years after Sputnik and a rapid change in American education can be noted. Often this change is noted in science; true, here is where the greatest change has come about.

However, other courses in the curriculum show change and progress.

In the English department at Lincoln - Way community high school the trend is to more writing. The modern high school is trying to give the student the tools with which to communicate.

Lincoln-Way has pioneered in this field with an official publication called, "Patterns". "Patterns" is a magazine, mimeographed, composed of student writing from the various English classes at Lincoln-Way.

Mrs. Jane Sullivan, head of the English department, feels that "Patterns" has been a stimulus to the writing of Lincoln-Way students.

In the past writing has been saved for college. In fact, much of the problems that high school students have in college English is the inability to write. Note, of remedial English courses of such schools as Harvard.

1960 will mark the third year for the publication of "Patterns". Vivian Jacobs, senior at Lincoln-Way, is the president of the "Patterns Club".

This is the student publication. A folder is given to each English teacher at the beginning of the year. The teacher places the best writing received during the year in this folder.

Then the Patterns Club evaluates the material and selects what it considers the best. Then it is published.

"Actually, our emphasis in composition is on the paragraph," explained Mrs. Sullivan. "At best, we hope to have our students writing good paragraphs."

Concentration on composition comes in the senior year. Effort to get beyond the paragraph development has been rather successful as the 1959 issue of Patterns will attest.

Freshman and sophomores at Lincoln - Way receive extensive drill and training in the fundamentals of grammar, usage, and generalized reading for ideas and types.

The junior year is spent in the survey of American Literature. Seniors get a survey of English Literature in addition to the composition.

Speech is a part of the English department at Lincoln-Way. Thespians, Footlighters, and other speech contest work constitute the outside activity in this area.

Mrs. Sullivan has found the Teen Age Book club to be very helpful in encouraging outside reading by the classes. These are inexpensive paperback of good quality.

A progressive "folder" system has been set up by the department so that each student can check his writing at any given time. This folder proves valuable in evaluation of the students progress by the faculty.

"We are fortunate to be citizens of a country where we can say what we think without thinking."—John C. Vivian.

No One Injured When Train And Van Collide

A Chicago bound commuter train on the Rock Island struck a 35-foot moving van on the Gougar road crossing in New Lenox township Saturday morning and cut the vehicle in two.

The diesel locomotive also had considerable damage but van driver, engine crew and the 55 passengers on the train escaped injury.

Driver of the motor vehicle was Henry Gooday, 37, of Joliet, employed by the Peters Moving and Storage Co. The engineer was James Turfiff, 39, of 11422 S. West ern ave., Blue Island.

Gooday told state police that the flasher signals at the crossing were not operating and that he did not see the train until he was on the track. Ice hindered traction, he said, so he was unable to get the trailer clear. It was reported that the lights were working when a second train passed.

The van was loaded with the household furnishings of two families moving to New York and some material from the Merchandise Mart and Navy Pier shows at Chicago. Contents of the van were scattered along the right-of-way for half a mile.

Sheets of metal that formed the body of the trailer were wrapped around the locomotive. A switch engine was sent out and drew the train and crippled engine back to Joliet. The accident occurred about 10:30 o'clock.

Gets Permit To Erect Signs For Mokena Church

The Youth Fellowship of the Methodist church has been given permission by the village board to erect church signs along Wolf road. The request of Chester Ebert for a permit to drill a well on his property to supply his home and the Ebert Phosphate Service because village water is not available, was referred to the water committee.

Sidney Westby, superintendent of the Public Service Co. at Joliet, has asked village officials to have police officers on night duty inform the utility firm when street lights are not functioning. Frank Murray, manager of the Northern Illinois Gas Co. asked that stickers be attached to all building permits urging contractors to ascertain the whereabouts of gas mains before digging and thus avoid possible serious accident.

Mrs. Dorothy Oetter was one of a group of women, members of the Railway Business Women's club, which made a trip to Colorado Springs on Nov. 6, chartering a Pullman car for the journey.

Observers Figure Knights Basketball Team Will Be Better Than Last Year's

Browsing Through The Cold Stove League

Football should be very good in the SWS Conference next season. It is doubtful that one team can go through the season with only one defeat next year.

Rich and Reavis, who lose most of their regulars had the top frosh-soph teams in the circuit.

Jonas Lashmet at Lincoln-Way is rather happy that eight of the 11 starters from this years squad are returning next fall. That should insure a better season for the Knights.

Joe Devine had plenty of underclassmen at Carl Sandburg this past season as they went down to the wire for the conference crown with Rich. In fact, many felt that the Eagles were the class of the SWS.

Devine's defensive outfit was by far the best. They allowed only 43 points in 8 ball games. This is by far the best that any team in the SWS could boast.

Next season the Eagles will have lettermen back with quite a few regulars. Some of Devine's backs were sophomores.

Bremen was big, but plenty young. Rich Norbut is a junior and will be returning.

Larry Callan's tribe should hit their stride next season. If football was better in the SWS this year; then we can look for a much better year next year.

The SWS is getting stronger with each season.

The Tinley Park Church Basketball League got underway on Tuesday evening at the Central Grade School in Tinley.

The Methodist who have won the championship for the past two seasons are the current favorites to take the diadem this year, again.

Last season Lincoln-Way community high school won only three basketball games and head coach Joe Kruzich would not predict one win or one loss for the season which starts tomorrow.

The Knights lost 11 games last season by less than eight points. Kruzich, tho he will not admit it, is hoping to win those close games. He remained non-committal.

The only predictions that Kruzich would make is that Bremen is the team to beat and then must come Carl Sandburg and Rich. Maybe, not quite in that order.

Lincoln-Way should be much better this season than last. Why?

The Knights lost only George Ruhl to graduation and George was not the outstanding player on last year's team. Larry Iwema's transfer to Thornton will be some loss to L-Way. Larry turned in some games early last season.

However, the Knights should get plenty of help from a strong group of youngsters who are developing rapidly.

"Skip" Kruzich, who set a three scoring records at Lincoln-Way as a sophomore, is back and looks like a surer shot in practice sessions. Kruzich scored a total of 345 points last year. The other two records that Kruzich holds is the most field goals and free throw totals for a single season.

"Skip" should score a few more this season and his improvement at the guard position will be a great help to the ball club. He will not be an unsteady sophomore.

Bill Seavertson, All-Conference guard in football, has continued to impress Kruzich in the workouts last week. Seavertson was a starter on last year's squad.

Much of the Knights success depends on a junior, Duane Warning. "Christmas" as he is known to his teammates is the only tall man on the Knights squad. He stands 6' 4".

Druzich is hoping that Warning can get the offensive rebounds and make the close-up shot. The Lincoln-Way team was definitely weak on inside shooting last season. If Warning fills this need the L-Way team will be one of the conference contenders.

Jerry Haehnlein, regular guard from last year, is nursing a broken hand from football season. Jerry will not see action until December.

Battling for Jerry's position are two promising juniors: Bob Lichten walter, who saw limited varsity action last season, and Ron Cramer. Cramer is a small fellow, but a fine outside shooter and teamed with Kruzich; they are a devastating pair.

Lichtenwalter has a tremendous desire to play and could well get the starting nod over the better shooting Cramer come the start of the season tomorrow.

John Kropp makes a fine reserve guard.

If you haven't already guessed, Kruzich has plenty of reserve strength. Currently, he has five guards. Any four of the five can come up with a respectable game on a given night. "Skip" Kruzich will no doubt, be one of the finest in the SWS this season.

Much of the question of the 1959-60 Knights club will revolve around the forward positions.

The guards will come along as there are two proven players in the positions. However, the forwards are relatively new, with exception of Seavertson. But Bill did score last season. A forward has to score some points for a winning team.

Seavertson is getting plenty of competition from two younger fellows. Al Waldvogel, about 6' 1", could make the Knights an unstoppable combination of outside shooters. Al has shown great consistency to hit from outside in early drills. With Kruzich, Cramer and Waldvogel the Knights would give a real demonstration of burning the net from a distance.

Dan Fenn, a hustling six-footer, is giving all of the forward aspirants a run-for-the-position. Dan is fast, full of desire, fakes and dries for his shots. Usually, he makes them.

Tom Peterson, who flashed early season greatness last season, is scholastically ineligible to play for this season.

Jim McGuire, one of three seniors on the squad, is in the running for a forward spot. Jim was in 17 games last year and will see action again this season.

A sophomore, Ron Yunker, must be considered for a forward or post position. Ron has shown rather well in practice and will get varsity action.

Mike Dinax is a probably reserve for Duane Warning at the pivot position. Mike is a senior. He is strong on rebounding, but did not play last year and thus lacks the game experience that some of the younger players already have.

Yes, sir, this will be an interesting team to watch. They could hit stride by the early part of January and just whip the opposition in the SWS at will.

Outside shooting will be a feature of this five. Kruzich's Knights will score more points and win at least twice as many games as they did last year.

"This team has hustle and determination. They will be in every ball game to the end and no team in the SW Suburban Conference is going to give us a drubbing this year," finished the Knights mentor.

Joe may prove to be a conservative prophet—that is if these young men jell; if they do . . . they'll win plenty.

Cage Coach Speaks At L-W

On Nov. 6, James McGregor, an outstanding basketball coach spoke to the student body at Lincoln-Way. Mr. McGregor has coached teams all over the world. He was the first man to coach a team behind the iron curtain. He is now devoting his time to speaking at high school assemblies. Before embarking on this career he was coaching basketball at the University of Southern California. He said that Russia is playing the sport of every country and competing with other countries in sports and winning. He told Lincoln-Way how if American doesn't begin taking an interest in competition with other countries in sports, Russia will beat us in this field and thus have a good point for propaganda. In history countries which have been great powers fell in sports before their power began to fall.

Homeowners Get Deed For Park From Merriion Co.

By MARGOT BARTNIK
SY 8-7742

At the Homeowners meeting on Nov. 10, Police Chief Marts and George Brogan were guest speakers. Chief Marts expressed his gratitude for the cooperation given him from everyone in Country Club Hills. He has purchased a home here and expects to occupy it in the near future. Everyone is reminded that the number to call for complaints is SY 8-3191.

The same committee that chose the police chief is currently interviewing candidates for volunteer police and hopes to have a list of names to submit to Chief Marts for his selection soon. Volunteers will go thru a 30 day training course before any assignments are issued.

The treasurer's report was $635.45 in the Bank of Homewood and $7,159.02 in Homewood Savings & Loan. The Homeowners approved transfer of $2,500 from the Savings and Loan account to the bank account for bills coming up, one of which is payment on the note to Darley for the fire engine -- payment of which is over $1,900.00.

The Homeowners association received the deed from the Merriion Co. on lot #18 otherwise known as Homeowners' Park. It contains a standard reverter clause which in essence means that if it is ever used for anything except a park without permission of the Merriion Co., title will revert to the Merriion Co. The deed was approved and accepted by the Association.

Specifications for play houses have been drafted. Homeowners must remember that approval of the Homeowners Association must be obtained before erecting a play house on their lot.

It was mentioned that the city expects to incorporate the covenants into an Ordinance when unit 6 covenants have been received. Unit 6, because of smaller lots, will have certain covenants which do not exist in the present covenants covering the other units, and it was felt that incorporation of all at one time would be more expedient.

It was interesting to note that while there has been excellent compliance with parking of trucks in garages as opposed to parking in drives, these trucks are still being parked in violation of the covenants even tho in a garage, because no request for a variation from the covenants has been made by the owners. George Brogan mentioned that to date, only three cases have necessitated filing of suits, since the majority of home owners have complied with requests when complaints have been filed. Mr. Brogan pointed out that covenants are in a sense, relatively new. The majority of people do not understand fully their value to the community, and specifically to the individual. They are actually an asset to the home owner since they guard his property against devaluation due to undesirable construction, maintenance etc. While the covenants are legally enforceable, a better understanding of them by everyone can prevent unnecessary expense by individual homeowners. When ever new construction, additions, fences, etc. are undertaken, the Homeowners Association should be contacted before any work begins.

UNITED CHRISTIAN CHURCH
The Youth Fellowship will meet Sunday, Nov. 22, with Gloria Sumann, 18451 Anthony.

Plans are being made by the finance department, Bob Landeen chairman, to provide for the continuance of the building fund until an intensive drive can be made in January.

Women members of the adult choir will practice this evening, Nov. 19, to work out special parts in music while the men attend the PTA meeting. They meet in the Central school at 8 p.m.

A special community Protestant Thanksgiving service is planned for Thanksgiving Day, at 10 a.m. in the Willowview school. The Carolers choir shall join the adult choir in singing. Offerings from this service will be used for the purpose of missions.

The Carolers choir meets Tuesday afternoons after school, and includes all interested children from 3rd grade thru those in Willowview. They will sing both at the Thanksgiving service and at the Christmas program and choir concert. Extra practices have also been scheduled for Sunday afternoons from 3 to 4 p.m. in the parsonage.

ST. JOSEPH'S MISSION CHURCH
Construction of the new Catholic church, scheduled for completion by Christmas, is rapidly reaching the point where volunteers will take over in the building. Men will work night and day to realize the hopes of all for Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve in the new building.

The women have formed a coffee committee under the leadership of Mrs. John Thomas, to periodically serve hot coffee and rolls to the workers. Other committees were formed at a meeting of the Catholic women in the area Nov. 13, held at the city hall, with 42 present. Jo-Ann Wood heads a stenographic committee whereas the church linen committee is under the direction of Gerry Bender. Volunteer secretary is Mrs. William Manning; volunteer treasurer, (Mrs. John) Florence Arvant, and historian, Mrs. James Cronin. Mrs. William Schomburg presided.

Membership in the newly formed choir under the direction of Tom Quigley, SY 9-5866, is growing. At the second meeting, held in the home of Mrs. George Bartnik, 18100 Baker, Nov. 11, 12 women were present. Interested men and women are urged to contact Mr. Quigley soon as a special Christmas program is being prepared. Plans are to conduct rehearsals in the homes of members with pianos, temporarily. Members thus far are: John E. King, Jr., Patricia Leszczewicz, Dolores Cuculich, Maureen Rio, Marilyn West, Margaret Arbuhnot, Marilyn Lewandowski, Phyllis Hoffmann, Marilee Merriion, Jean Simon, Elinor Nally, Dorothy Coughlin, and Margot Bartnik.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Pastor C.W. Reaka brought a devotional message for the South Suburban Fishermen's club Nov. 7 which met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Boer, 16360 Cottage Grove, South Holland. This club is made up of Christian men and women who carry on a particular ministry with the fallen men and women in the Skid Row missions of the Chicago-Hammond area.

Sunday, Nov. 8, the Country Club Hills Baptist Church enjoyed a record attendance of 51 in Sunday school and morning worship. The Wednesday night prayer meeting for children has had an average attendance of 19 since its beginning early in October. Several new families are attending services as a result of the weekly church visitation program.

Pastor Reaka and some of the men of the church have installed a floor furnace and chimney in the church. Additional drainage pipe has been laid at the driveway on Cicero ave., in preparation for the widening of the drive.

Special services will be held in the church Thanksgiving Day at 8 a.m.

Saturday, Nov. 21, at 7:30 p.m., at Thornton high school, 151st and Broadway, Harvey, the Voice Of Christian Youth will present a special program for teenagers of the South Suburban area. The featured speaker will be H. Park Tucker, warden of the state penitentiary at Atlanta, Georgia. Some years ago Warden Tucker was miraculously saved from death in a coal mine disaster in Pennsylvania, and has written a book about this experience. He presents a living message that challenges hearts. There will also be special music singing, and testimonies. If transportation is needed, call Pastor Reaka at SY 8-2241.

CITY COUNCIL

At the meeting of the City Council postponed from Nov. 9th, to Nov. 11, resolution was passed to establish a $25.00 petty cash fund for Police Chief Marts. It will come out of the budget for the Police Dept. Passed also was a resolution to approve $510.00 for the special census, to take place soon. Virginia Bennison, city clerk, will act as official contact to sign all papers. Volunteers will be requested from the community to aid with the census. Street signs have arrived and are being erected.

Open house will be held in our city hall Saturday, Nov. 28 from 1 to 5 p.m.

An amendment to the Sub-division control ordinance was introduced, in regard to street signs at intersections. The opinion is that they should be larger. Introduced was an amendment to Chapter 7 (miscellaneous offenses) in regard to ice-boxes, refrigerators, etc. being put outside without the doors being removed first. Introduced for the first time also was an amendment to chapter 9. This was formerly known as the Dog ordinance and is now known as the Animal or Animals' ordinance. An Ordinance on bicycle safety was introduced. All bicycles must be registered with the Police Dept. for a fee of .50¢. A registration tag will be issued to put on bicycles. All bicycles must have a white light after dark which can be seen at a distance of at least 500 feet and also a red light in the rear. Riders on bicycles must abide with all safety rules, which are the same as for drivers of automobiles. May 9 Police Chief Marts will begin a Bicycle Safety program at Willowview school. Chapter 13, Licenses & Permits was adopted into the Municipal code. An amendment was introduced by Alderman Ray Hoewing and passed which reads: "No license or permit shall be issued to applicant unless he is first registered with Chief Marts." A resolution was passed to appropriate $125.00 from money set aside in the budget for uniforms. Chief Marts is ordering forest green uniforms. All volunteer police will wear the same uniform. Applications are still being accepted for volunteer police.

The last appointments to the Playground Recreation board were Bernard Enfield, 17850 Anthony and Raymond Champlin, 18650 Lee. Elmer Wulf is chairman for one year. The board met Nov. 16, in the City Hall, with Mayor Nally and Alderman Nelson, chairman of the committee.

BREMEN BEAT

Glenn Starnes, principal, and Robert Medcalf, guidance director, of Bremen Community High School, will discuss "What about College?" at a meeting of seniors and juniors and their parents Monday, Nov. 23, at 8 p.m. in the Bremen cafeteria.

Their talks will cover general entrance requirements for college costs involved, college board examinations and related tests for college entrance scholarships, loans, grants in aid, and methods of and time to apply for admission.

They will also discuss the reasons for attending large universities, small colleges, or junior colleges.

A question and answer period will follow their addresses.

Robert Medcalf, guidance director, will speak at a panel discussion Friday, Nov. 20, at 8 p.m. at Central school, Homewood.

Medcalf will talk on "Is College for My Child?" at the discussion which concerns "The Parents' Role in Grooming High School Students for College."

Moderator at the meeting sponsored by the Ohio State University Alumni Club of South Suburban Chicago will be Dr. Robert Marschner, senior research associate in a prominent industry.

John Bevan was elected president of the Projectionists recently, with Samuel Johnson named vice-president. Beatrice Konopasek was chosen secretary, with Arlene Mihalovitch as file clerk.

Other members of the group, which has charge of the operation and maintenance of audio-visual equipment at Bremen, are Wayne Billadeau, Garry Burkle, Dennis Day, Bernard Mikrut, Dan Morrissey, Bill Zawacki, Jon Schmidt, Rich McLeod, and Bob De-trick.

All members of the organization are given a two-week course in which they learn to operate and maintain the equipment.

To remain in the group, they must maintain a "B" average. Audio-visual equipment at Bremen consists of moving picture projectors, an opaque projector, film strip projectors, tape recorders, record players, a public address system a previewer, and various motion picture screens.

Joseph Cordaro is director of the audio-visual program at Bremen, with Jacob Turban as assistant.

The Harvest Haze, a dance sponsored by the Student Council will be held Friday, Nov. 20, from 8 to 11 p.m. in the cafeteria of that school.

Decorations will carry out an autumn motif, and refreshments will be served. Karen Digman is chairman of the committee arranging the dance assisted by Jeanette Rizzutti, George Rieke, Pat Porter, and Bill Klecka.

Robert DuBois and Delmar Egli are faculty sponsors of the Student Council.

The organization sponsored an all-school swim at Bremen Tuesday night, Nov. 10, with proceeds RETIREES FROM RAILROADING--after 49 years and seven months of service with the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern Ry. That is the record of Fred Nitsche (third from left) of 18232 Oak Park ave., Tinley Park. He was 18 years old when he went to work for the "J" as a fireman. That was Feb. 29, 1910. He has been working for the same road since but most of his service has been as an engineer. He operated all types of steam engines and after the E. J. & E. went "diesel" he handled those. At the time of his retirement this fall he was running a transfer engine out of Joliet.

to go to the scoreboard fund. Donna McLennan was chairman of the event.

Pat Jungles was recently named homecoming queen at Bremen Community High School, with Lynn Lehmann, Joy Bryson, Jeanette Rizzutti, and Roberta Trump as members of her court.

David Syfert, Student Council president, presented the queen with a bouquet and introduced her, as well as Richard Falk and Jack Bauer, football co-captains, to the large crowd that attended the home coming dance.

Psychiatrists say it's not good for a man to keep too much to himself. The Department of Internal Revenue says the same thing.

"Almost a half century of the most capable and dependable service is an extraordinary accomplishment," T. D. Beven told Nitsche in a letter, "and I congratulate you upon your conspicuously excellent record. You will be missed."

Municipalities Require Protection From Suits

The idea that a city or town cannot be sued for its negligent acts because it is an instrumentality of the state is outmoded, according to a representative of the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies.

"Municipalities today must be responsible for their negligent acts in the same manner as private business, and beyond that point where specific statutes so decree, where specific statutes so decree," H. T. Helton, Chicago manager of the American Surety Company, told the Illinois Municipal League at its annual convention here today.

Mr. Helton, who is president of the board of trustees of Munster, Ind., said the past 25 years have seen gradual changes in the doctrine of "sovereign immunity" which are overwhelmingly supported by court decisions.

Exemplifying these changes is today's picture of the liability of municipalities to people who use the streets and sidewalks. This makes it imperative that city and town officials assess all exposure to loss through negligence, as well as damage to property, and arrange suitable protection.

The speaker cited a recent state supreme court case in which an Illinois city was convicted of negligence and paid a substantial sum when a woman particularly noticeable to other witnesses. "The woman had used the sidewalk twice a day for some seven years," he said. "She had full knowledge of the so-called defect, and in fact deliberately stepped on it the day she fell."

An often unrecognized liability that affects the homeowner as well as the municipality exists under the scaffolding act, Mr. Helton pointed out. "If the property owner has an independent contractor build a building, wash windows, put up or repair a sign or television antenna, or do anything that requires work above ground level, he can be held liable for injuries sustained by employees of the contractor."

A protection against such losses, Helton recommended that property owners obtain a comprehensive liability policy and also insist that the work done be covered by a contract holding the property owner harmless for any injury to anyone as a result of the independent contractor's work.

Property Taxes Increase 125 Per Cent In 10 Years

Local property taxes paid by Illinois taxpayers in 1958 for year 1957 are $570,825,886, or approximately 125% higher than those paid in 1948, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois stated today in its weekly news release. Total local property tax extensions in 1958 amounted to $1,028,010,683 compared to $457,184,797 in 1948.

What local governments share in this huge tax bill and to what extent? The answer to this question is found in the following breakdown: Name of District 1958 Counties -- $77 803 646; Twps. and Rd. Dist. -- $52 270 276; Cities, villages -- $205 606 372; Special districts such as fire protection, airport and park -- $126,179,716; School dist. -- $566 - 150,673.

The property tax bite on John Public's pocketbook has become deeper over the past 10 years and the causes can be described very briefly. They are: More citizens getting more services from their local governments, at inflated costs for practically everything.

Thousands of beautiful new school buildings dot the landscape. Thousands of miles of new highways and streets have been built or improved in rural and municipal areas. Rising welfare benefits are going to more persons.

Remedies are as difficult as any return to economy always is, after a long period of spending. However, a few suggested are:

(1) First of all, constant awareness by the average citizen that he pays practically all taxes eventually, no matter on whom they were originally levied.

(2) Continuous vigilance by said average citizen regarding costs of and need for proposed new public projects; continuous insistence on economies.

(3) Simpler school buildings, adequate for teaching learning in comfort and health, but without some of the frills.

(4) Stricter administration of welfare programs, with eradication of costly abuses.

(5) Adherence to the principle that all -- citizens and government -- live within their income.

About 6,000 New Teachers Added Annually In State

Illinois is preparing between 5,000 and 6,000 new teachers annually, Gov. William G. Stratton said in his dedication ceremony speech of four new buildings at Western Illinois university, Macomb.

The teachers are graduates from the public and private colleges and universities located in Illinois.

Last summer the state's four universities under the teachers college board supervision graduated 2,586 of which about 2,000 will go into the teaching profession, the governor said. "At the same time the Chicago teachers college, which is state supported, the University of Illinois and Southern Illinois university prepare almost as many young people for teaching," the governor said.

"Private Schools of our state, which plan such an important part in our higher educational system in Illinois, Governor Stratton pointed out, at the same time are preparing a number of teachers equal to the number being graduated from the four schools under the teachers college board.

"This goes far toward solving the need for teachers but it must not be viewed too optimistically. In addition to expansion we have replacement to contend with, replacement for those who retire and those who leave the profession. There are, frankly, still serious shortages in the elementary schools and in a number of specialized fields, such as high school teachers of English, foreign language, mathematics, women's physical education, physics and chemistry--the latter two of which are extremely vital in the national effort.

"So the picture, while not rosy, is propitious, but there is an even more encouraging aspect which should be mentioned. We believe firmly that we are graduating teachers of quality, and we are proud of the caliber of the teaching profession in Illinois, and the new blood we are injecting into this very noble profession."

Gov. Stratton in conclusion pointed to the 71st General Assembly appropriation, which he approved, of nearly a quarter of a billion dollars for higher education in Illinois. He said "This is our answer to the heavy load which education must bear in the years ahead--and let me pledge here today that as the load becomes greater, we will meet it."

Western's dedication ceremony was for the Fine Arts Building, Student Center, Mary Bennett hall and new dormitory for men.

U.S. School enrollment has jumped from 31 million to 46 million in 10 years.

Need Help In Retarded Childrens Fund Campaign

An appeal for 2,000 additional volunteers was issued by Jim "Courtesy" Moran, Chicago area chairman of the 1959 National Retarded Children's Week campaign. "More than 2,000 have already volunteered for this one-day project and the additional 2,000 workers are needed to serve in a door-to-door fund drive on Sunday, November 15," Moran said. He requested volunteers to contact the Illinois Council for Mentally Retarded Children, 343 South Dearborn st., Wabash 2-2262, local sponsor of the week. The drive will be conducted from 1 to 5 p.m. The $250,000 goal in the Chicago area is needed to maintain services for retarded children and to support research. The campaign is part of a nation wide appeal being conducted by more than 600 units of the National Association for Retarded Children during the 12-day observance, November 15-26, he added.

"We now know that the 150,000 mentally retarded children in Illinois can be helped," Moran said. "Funds are needed to secure facilities and personnel to help them with the latest and best techniques of training and education. With proper training and help, many mentally retarded can become useful, constructive members of society."

Twenty-one groups of parents and friends of the retarded, affiliated with the Illinois Council for Mentally Retarded Children, are located in the Chicago area of Cook, Lake and DuPage counties. They operate special schools and vocational workshops or work for the welfare of residents of state schools.

There are 21 area council member units, among them the South Suburban Council for Mentally Retarded Children, which operates the Hapday School in Chicago Heights. Donald Barnes, 3537 Ashland ave., Steger, (SK 4-8777), president, and the Suburban Southwest Association for Mentally Retarded Children, Inc. which operates Suburban Southwest school in First Methodist church, 9344 Homan ave., Evergreen Park, for pupils from Oak Lawn, Evergreen Park, Blue Island and Worth. Robert H. Helms, 2728 W. 94th st., Evergreen Park, (Ga. 4-6360) is president.

WILLIAM F. WHITESIDE
Cook Co. Assoc. Farm Adviser
The week of Nov. 20-26 has been designated National Farm-City week. Ezra Taft Benson, secretary of agriculture, had this to say about special emphasis on this week. "It gives us an occasion for special emphasis of important facts that we in USDA stress the year around."

"Farm and city people are heavily dependent on each other in many ways. Each group needs a better understanding of the problems and progress of the other in order to gain mutual improvement."

"Agriculture is our basic industry. It provides not only food but industrial raw materials. All people are customers of farmers and ranchers."

"In turn, agriculture is a $15-billion customer of industry and labor each year, not counting the billions of dollars farm and ranch people spend for consumer goods."

"In many other ways, rural and urban people have mutual interests and problems. Water is a good example. Farm and city people alike are affected by water problems flood, shortage, or pollution. Increasingly they are finding that team work in their local watershed speeds the permanent solution of these problems."

"The same results are seen in the Rural Development Program. Farm-city cooperation is the foundation of this program that is raising the living standards of small, low income farmers."

"Yes, we who are concerned with agriculture welcome Farm-City Week. The interdependence of farmers and city people is such that all will gain by strengthening this partnership."

The comments were taken from the American Society of Agronomy publication, "Crops and Soils."

1. "Ever since President Lincoln proclaimed our first national Thanksgiving Day in 1863, the turkey has been the symbol of the day. Many people believe that it would be more appropriate to have the turkey as our national bird in place of the eagle."

"The turkey industry has certainly grown by leaps and bounds in recent years. The development of smaller birds, heavy breasted breeds and better packing has helped materially. No longer a highly seasonal business, the industry's volume is now well over $50 million annually."

2. "If some people would use as much caution in opening their mouths as in opening their pocketbooks, they'd have as much sense as dollars."

3. If the farmers in Kansas gave his wheat away, the American consumer would still pay 17 1/2 cents for that 20-cent loaf of bread. If the cotton grower in Texas grew his crop just for the fun of it, we'd still pay $2.75 for that $3.00 cotton shirt.

Agriculture and industry have common interests. In view of this the College of Agriculture will hold the second Agricultural Industries forum on February 2 and 3. Theme of the program is "Planning for Dynamic Growth."

Seeks Census Enumerators

Rural residents in the Orland area (Cook county) who would like jobs as enumerators in the national farm census to be taken in November and December, may contact Mrs. Edna I. Andrew, 309 Hillside ave., Prospect Heights, who is in charge of the project in Cook county. Her telephone number is Clearbrook 3-2970.

The pay for enumerators is $1.60 an hour, plus 7 cents a mile for car allowance. Enumerators must be over 18 years of age, citizens and residents of the rural area in which they will work. It is expected the job will run three to four weeks, Mrs. Andrew said. Persons accepted for the task will attend a 3-day school before beginning the job. The farm census is taken by the federal government every five years.

Report Building In Chicago Area Lowest In Ten Years

Chicago area home building permits reached a ten year low during October, while, in contrast, suburban apartment construction continued to set new records, according to the Bell Savings and Loan Association report.

The 2,480 total for homes was the lowest volume for the month of October since 1949--29% below the 3,519 home permits issued in October 1958. The drop in home construction was evident in all sections of the Chicago area with a 33 per cent decrease in the city, a 13 per cent decrease in the suburbs and a 30 per cent decrease in the unincorporated areas.

Suburban apartment construction continued its record breaking pace. Despite the reduction in other housing statistics, the 604 suburban apartment units reported in October is a new record for that month. This is the seventh consecutive month in which all time monthly high has been reached for apartments in the suburbs.

Permits issued by the new city of Country Club Hill for all types of building was $457,562 in October 1959, as compared to $935,450 in September 1959. No report was available for October, 1958.

Midlothian dropped from $395,926 in October 1958 to $192,785 in October 1959. In September 1959 the total of permits issued was $302,552.

Oak Forest, however, showed an increase in building valuation in October 1959--$754,500 as compared with $366,300 in October 1958. Sixty permits were issued for new homes in October 1959 with a valuation of $676,000.

Orland Park's decreased valuation of permits was $321,000 as compared with $430,450 in October 1958.

Palos Hills valuation in construction decreased from $79,155 in September to $64,105 in October. Four permits were for homes with valuation $59,137.

Tinley Park had a slight decrease in October with permit valuation amounting to $208,475 as compared to $215,816 in October 1958. In September 1959 permits issued had a valuation of $92,651. Nine of the permits issued last month were for home construction with a valuation of $123,978, as compared to eight in October 1958 with a valuation of $117,170.

The Village of Worth is the only one listed in the area as having issued building permits for apartments. In October permits for 13 units had a valuation of $77,000.

No individual report was shown for the Mokena New Lenox, or Frankfort area, but the total valuation of permits issued in Will county in October was $1,222,850 as compared to $1,329,757 the same month in 1958. The valuation of permits issued in September 1959 was $1,310,778. The number of permits for home construction in the county was 85 in October 1959 as compared to 98 in October 1958. Oak Lawn led all other suburban towns in construction, by issuing permits for 670 homes for the first ten months of 1959, having a total valuation of $10,766,100.

hardt. The handicraft for the month was the making of Christmas ornaments; Mrs. Burkhardt gave a 20 minute talk on how to make the various types of handicraft that were displayed.

Next year will be the 50th anniversary for the Boy Scouts of America. Any scout or former scout who wishes to contribute to a memorial should send a donation to Al Sorensen along with the name or names to be inscribed on the scroll that will be placed in the commemorative tribute at the time of its construction in Washington, D.C. For the Cub Scouts of Mokena to make their gift, the activity for November is to be one of picking up corn left in the fields by the corn picker. This corn is to be taken to the elevator and sold with some of this money being used toward a gift to the Memorial. It is hoped we will have a large attendance of Cub Scouts to help with picking up corn. This activity will be held, weather permitting, on Saturday, Nov. 21, from 8:30 to 11:30 am. Mr. Tilsy will have a truck wagon in front of the Carpenter street school at 8:15. Any adult who is interested in supervising the boys should contact him.

There will be a pack meeting at the Carpenter street school on Thursday, Nov. 19 at 7:30 pm. We would appreciate it if every adult attending with their boys would bring as aprice of admission a disused or broken toy to be turned over to the Marine Corps Reserve in Joliet as part of their Toys for Tots program. This program consists of having used and broken toys turned over to the Joliet pen itentiary for reprocessing and repair. The toys are than put on display for underprivileged Will County children.

Time To Prepare Lawns, Plantings For Winter

by JAMES FIZZELL
Assistant Farm Adviser

Now is the last chance we will have to prepare lawns and plantings for winter. Proper attention to this will assure that everything will come through the winter in the best condition.

Lawns should be raked free of all fallen leaves. Leaves will smother out the grass below them leaving dead areas in the lawn. The grass should be cut to about two inches so that it will not become matted inviting disease.

Annual flowers should be pulled out of the beds as soon as they die, or should be dug under. Tender perennials and bulbs should be removed before the ground freezes solid. Be sure to cut back the dead tops of the hardy perennials and rake the rose beds free of fallen leaves. Some of the diseases of roses can be eliminated in this way, since they often overwinter on fallen leaves.

Secure the materials you will use to cover the rose plants. Half bushel baskets placed over the plants work quite nicely, or mound soil or peat moss up around the plants. Evergreens, particularly newly planted ones should be well watered before the ground freezes. These plants need water even in mid-winter because their leaves lose water every warm day.

Many people lose their chance for an early start in spring because of broken or lost equipment. Mud and rust should be removed from all shovels, trowels, hoes etc. Rust can be removed with a wire scratch brush or steel wool. After cleaning, sharpen the tools, and wipe them with an oil rag to prevent further rusting.

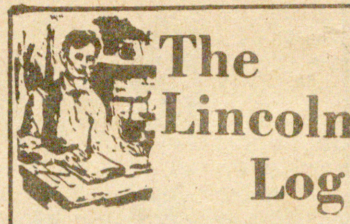

Rough or cracked handles can cause nasty blisters. Smooth rough spots with sandpaper and treat the handles with linseed oil. Replace cracked handles.

Sharpen your mower or have it sharpened. Clean grass clippings and oil from all parts with a brush and oil all moving parts. Adjust the blade to the proper height.

Gasoline engines should be drained of fuel and cleaned. Fuel left in the tank over winter can gum up the carburetor and fuel lines. Clean the air and fuel filters. Clean or replace the spark plug. Check moving parts and belts for wear. Replace worn parts which could cause a breakdown with heavy summer use.

Thoroughly clean all traces of fertilizer from your spreader, and oil the moving parts. Fertilizer bags should be stored off the floor, and open bags should be sealed to prevent caking.

Drain the hose and hang it up dry on a hose reel, or store it in a round basket. Don't hang it on a hook or nail which might cause a sharp bend and possibly crack hose. Replace worn washers. Properly installed sill-cocks

PATTERNS

The club, Patterns, was organized three years ago for the purpose of stimulating good student writing. Any student attending Lincoln-Way may contribute material to the club for possible publication.

A booklet is published each year by the club containing selected works from those submitted.

The following are the new officers for 1959-60: Vivian Jacobson, president; Pat Loucks, vice-president; Kathy Guether, secretary, and Wanda Martin, treasurer.

The latest activities of the club have included a planning session for the purpose of deciding upon a method to obtain material for the future edition.

All student writings which may consist of themes, poems, essays and so on, will be submitted to Patterns by any teacher or individual who would like to contribute.

All material will be carefully examined by committees who must judge, evaluate and make the selections for the final booklet.

F.B.L.A.

Also the club has been working hard at earning F.B.L.A. awards and degrees by helping a teacher out and doing other worthwhile things for our school. The club's biggest job, tho is to run the school bookstore which supplies the students with school

■ Reading a doctor's prescription is not quite as hard as breaking a code. What appears to be scribbling is really medical shorthand that physicians use to tell us your needs. It can be read by pharmacists anywhere and lets us, here in your neighborhood, fill any prescription no matter which doctor writes it. Chances are we could fill a prescription from Afghanistan. No matter what it looks like to you, the important thing is that we can read it and serve your needs.

Business & Finance

by MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The length of the steel strike indures that many corporate earnings reports for the fourth quarter will not be as glowing

as was expected earlier in the year. Steel

shortages

effect many businesses

in direct

and indirect way. Business comments by leading banks and industrialists express themselves as feeling that steel mills will be operating at capacity for most of 1960

These predictions are based on known demands for steel and steel products.

Few observers seem to believe a continuation of the steel strike will follow expiration of the Taft-

Hartley 80-day cooling off period.

Lack of pressure during this period could offer a good climate for agreement between steel employers and the union. The secret ballot on the issues before the end of the 80-day period, might well result in repudiation of the union leaders. The members might vote against continuing the strike to the considerable embarrassment of these leaders.

To embarrass these leaders would seem to serve no good purpose over the longer period. If leadership change were brought about in this manner, can we be sure the new leaders would not be much more radical than those presently in power. The bitter fight of this strike may well have forced the issue of work rule changes, for negotiation.

The stock market on the whole,

has not shown any considerable activity since conclusion of the strike. Of course, there are several additional potential strikes in the next few months. To date, the market has been mostly rather inactive with a few of the electronic issues attracting most of the attention. The selling and market volume dries up when the market declines, indicating there is little investor pressure to sell present holdings. Conversely, there is little investor enthusiasm to bid up prices to induce selling volume.

A t present, the best grade oil shares seem to be getting institutional attention. Some of these leading oil shares are selling at prices to yield about 5 per cent on the present dividend basis. Most of the firms have had very good growth patterns for a number of years and are presently showing earnings increases.

Over supply of petroleum products is not a new phenomena to these leading firms. The conditions have always been corrected.

It is common to hear comments that this or that period is a desirable investment period. Actually there never has been an ideal time in which to invest—except in hind sight. It is the lot of most of us to live in a period when there are constant problems in the world.

Even a casual study of the past 15 years when crystal clear hindsight has shown ideal investment periods existed, will reveal each of those years had its own tragedies and problems. We humans forget easily.

Many successful investors invest their funds when they have such funds for investment. They do not try to have clairvoyant powers. They do the best they can at the time.

Fortune magazine has a survey of successes of market letters in its October 1959 issues. Although these letters are expensive, their results have not been impressive.

UI, Engineering Freshmen Are Better Prepared

Freshmen entering engineering at the University of Illinois are showing increasingly better high school preparation and scholarship. Prof. Davie R. Opperman, assistant dean, College of Engineering, has announced.

Dean Opperman said high school preparation offered by the great majority of freshman exceeds that required by the college for admission.

Quality of new students also is increasing. The number from the upper 20 per cent of their high school class rose from 41 per cent in 1954 to 50 per cent in 1958 and those from the lowest half dropped from 19 to 13 per cent.

Would Merge Illinois Counties

The big government advocates should find the proposal of C. L. Stewart, a University of Illinois agriculture economist much to their liking.

At a meeting of the Illinois Civic Exchange held recently at Springfield Mr. Stewart proposed that the number of Illinois counties be reduced from 102 to 11. He has drawn such a plan and claims that it would put two-thirds of the residents within 35 miles of their county seat. What that would do to the other third of the population was not explained in press reports of the meeting.

He would also revise the revenue laws of Illinois and while the information we have on his talk does not say just how he would have the people taxed one is inclined to believe that Mr. Stewart would favor a state income tax law.

This is a free country—yet, so Mr. Stewart is entitled to hold and voice such opinions as he chooses. But we don't agree with him.

An income tax, we fear, would be an additional burden on the people and would not be a substitute for any of the imposts now carried.

We do not like his idea of reducing the number of counties in the state to less than a dozen. If this were done it is probable that the law would include a provision to abolish township government on the grounds that with the larger counties such a system would be unwieldy and inefficient.

We have become so indoctrinated with the virtues of efficiency that it can be used to sell most any idea.

Of course later on we may find that the most efficient thing is not always the best thing but that word efficiency has magic for a people brought up on a production line economy.

Probably the administration of these suggested king-sized counties would be turned over to a board of commissioners or a county manager. Either method would be an effective way to deal the public out of a voice in county affairs.

The larger the area of a subdivision of government the further away it is from influence by the governed.

We don't believe that the people of Will, DuPage, Kane and Lake counties would like to be a part of the Cook county government, for instance, any more than they would like to merge with any others of their neighbors.

Why not merge Illinois and Indiana and include the southern areas of Wisconsin and Michigan? It is pointed out that some Illinois counties have small populations and by joining several together a broader tax base would be formed. By the same reasoning it should be a natural to join Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, New Mexico and Arizona to form one state or annex them to Texas. The New England states are small and might be more efficiently operated if joined to Massachusetts or New York but we don't imagine the New Englanders would care for the idea.

We don't imagine that the counties of Illinois will surrender to the big government forces but it will pay to keep an eye on such forces.

sake to close the door. The night was chilly and it is drafty in those stables even with the door shut.

That harbinger of good tidings popped out again as speedily as he came in, no doubt looking for a more receptive audience. A little later another soldier came running in with more of the same.

"Nuts," one of the players answered, "And don't stand there with that so-and-so door open. The Heinies want to shoot us and you want to freeze us. Get out."

In the next half hour we were interrupted by other fellow Americans and figured it was being done on purpose to annoy us.

Then the door was flung open again and this time there were several of the villagers standing there and shouting . . . "Fin! le guerre! Fin! le guerre!"

The clincher, however, was a french civilian who pressed into the stable waving a bottle of brandy and offering us a drink.

The sight of a Frenchman offering to stand a drink was so unnerving that it broke up the games.

"By golly," one of the sergeants said, "When Frogs come round of fering to set up drinks we are lucky if this is only the end of the war. It could be the end of the world."

So we went out on the street and it was filled with villagers. They were laughing and crying and chattering away like mad. This town we were in was the base of an air squadron. Someone said Eddie Rickenbacker was in command.

Those who still didn't quite believe the French knew what they were talking about were convinced by the flyers. Every plane that would fly was up with the pilots blazing away with machine guns and signal pistols. Miraculously no one was killed, aloft or on the ground.

But the next morning we had our doubts. We packed up and continued our trek. Later we found that under the terms of the Armistice troop movements were to continue until 11 am.

Then when 11 o'clock came we were halted in another village and our world became silent. When the guns ceased we agreed it must be on the square.

The war was over but look at where the army dumped us—in a town that had no beer.

BAD HABITS AND TEETH

Opening tops of bottles with your teeth may make you the life of the party but it's not a practice recommended by the dentist.

People easily damage teeth by using them for things for which they were not intended.

For example, the abnormal habit of biting on the ear part of eye glasses can be an important factor in migration of the teeth, dentists point out.

Bookkeepers, typists and stenographers are often guilty of biting pencils and fountain pens. In many of these persons, dentists have found considerable wear in the teeth.

Biting on matches and tooth picks, abnormal tongue pressure against the teeth, lip biting and cheek biting and continued clenching of teeth to control emotions may all have an adverse effect, dentists say.

Persons in certain occupations are apt to develop bad tooth habits. Upholsterers, carpenters and cobblers who hold nails between their teeth develop typical dental ailments. Seamstresses who bite thread and dressmakers who hold pins and needles between their teeth invariably suffer from bad tooth conditions.

Among children, the habit most detrimental to the teeth is thumb sucking. Most authorities seem to agree the habit will not cause an improper alignment of teeth, however, if it is discontinued by age four or five.

Related to thumb sucking is the use of pacifiers. Dentists recommend that neither pacifiers nor nursing bottles should be used after age 6. They are likely to cause a protrusion of the front teeth and a narrowing of the dental arch.

On Second Thot

BY GLENN F. LOGAN

Another Armistice Day has come and gone—as anniversaries have a habit of doing—and like those of the past it has found us working.

For that we are thankful. There are so many who can remember the first armistice that are now ill or disabled.

It is Veterans day now and has legal status thru an Act of Congress but probably most of us who served in World War I will forget most of the time and keep on calling it Armistice Day. Not because we are stubborn but because that is what it is to us, marking as it did cessation of hostilities in what up to then was the biggest dang war the world had known.

Wars are noisy things at best but World War I was especially so. It was a static war rather than a war of movement. Troops were dug in and when they moved against each other such moves were accompanied by artillery fire and the term barrage became a common household word.

Even when troops were quiet some brass hat back in an area where there was heat and plumb would figure things were too dull and give the canoneers a job. It didn't make any difference which brass ordered the fire, the results were the same. If we opened on the Heinies they would retaliate and if they were the ones to start it then you can bet that our guns would try to finish it.

As a result those who worked in front areas were never beyond the rumble of canon. In time one forgot the sound but when at 11 o'clock on the morning of Nov. 11, 1918 all firing ceased, the silence affected one's ears, so that it seemed quite loud.

There was some confusion about the original armistice in this country. There was an error in the date in the first news story of the event cabled to the U. S., so the people had two occasions to celebrate—the false armistice and the real one.

The outfit to which this writer belonged was on the road when the Armistice was signed. There had been rumors about the war coming to an end but except for the opportunity it gave to pass away spare time adding to, or embellishing current rumors or starting some brand new ones the rank and file of the A.E.F. put little stock in the talk.

Rumors were just a part of army life—like drill, leave, fatigue details, paydays, promotion, food sleep and transport for foot weary soldiers. As a matter of fact these things mentioned were all subjects of rumors too.

Our outfit listened to the talk that the war was going to end soon but inasmuch as we were traveling toward Metz where a new push was scheduled to begin such talk was freely discounted. The only ones to place much credence in it were the hardened pessimists who figured that opening against Metz would mean not only the end of the war but the end period.

We had been halted in a French village for the night and after locating our billets and getting something to eat a couple of poker games got underway in the most commodious stable along the street. The games were dealer's choice but a choice limited to draw and five or seven-card stud with everyone tossing in a half franc for an ante and then the size of the pot became the limit.

That kind of game requires attention at times so when some soldier pushed the door open and yelled something about the war being over no one paid him any mind, other than to tell him for goodness
